NAIL THE LIE.

Taylor and his friends, who are running his campaign on lies, are persist-ently circulating the falsehood that Gen. Warner opposed and voted against a bill to increase the pensions of widows and minor children. This is a lie msnu'sctured out of the whole cloth. Gen. Warner's friends will give $500 to anyone who will show any such vote of his. or any word of his against such a hill or such a provision in any hill. On the contrary, General Warner's Committee unanimously reported a bill, which Gen Warner bimself drew up, increasing the pensions of widows from $8 to $12, and the pensions of minor childred from 82 to $5 per month. Lies are only resorted to when the troth would hurt.

Mr. Taylor, in bis lying supplement, makes the following statement: "The bill reported from his (G-n. Warner's) committee by Mr. Greenleaf, May 7th. is dwelt upon by him.
